

7th June 1938.

Dear Sir Arthur,

I have now heard from Mrs. Draper, who finds herself unable to accept without reservations our invitation to present the Certificates to the International Students. She has apparently not been well and considers it unwise for her to take on definite responsibilities. We shall therefore be very glad indeed to accept Mr. Norman Davis's offer to comply with our original request to perform the ceremony for us. I understand that you will be kind enough to let him know this when he arrives in England next week. It is indeed a fortunate chance for us that he should have changed his plans at the last moment.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
