27th April 1928.

Dear Mrs. Carter,

I enclose the Agenda for the meeting next Friday and have, as you will see, put Admissions of Students on the Agenda. ^{A copy of} The special cases which you sent to me will be before each member of the Committee.

Lady Barrett has definitely accepted the invitation to open the Summer School, but Dame Rachel Crowdy is unable to accept our invitation to give one of the evening lectures, so we shall have one or two matters of this kind to settle at the committee.

Yours sincerely,

Secretary.
