

Nursing Mirror 28.1.33.

Florence Nightingale Memorial

WE are pleased to have heard from Dame Sarah Swift, who has circularised the Nurses' Leagues not affiliated to the National Council and other friends who are interested in the formation of the Florence Nightingale Memorial, that a substantial sum has already been received. It will be remembered that the scheme was suggested in Florence Nightingale Week last July, when it was proposed that the present course of post-graduate work at Bedford College for international students should be used as a basis for a more extensive scheme which will be of benefit to all trained nurses from all parts of the world. The list of subscribers is as follows:—Anonymous, £5; Sir A. W. Faire, £2; Sundries per Dame Sarah Swift, £50; Miss E. Dodds and Nurses, Bethnal Green Hospital, £6 0s. 3d.; Mrs. Lyndon, £5; Miss M. S. Rundle, £1 1s.; Miss Smaill and Nurses, Edinburgh Royal Infirmary, £17 10s.; Mrs. E. M. Rome, £5; Miss A. E. Burgess (Bonchurch), 10s. 6d.; King's College Hospital Nurses' League (with a further promise to make up the sum to £125, i.e., half a Scholarship), £60; Miss Todd and Nurses' League, St. James's Hospital, Balham, £6 6s.; Miss Pye, Belgrave Institute, Chelsea, 10s. 6d.; Mrs. Coward and Staff, Trained Nurses' Co-operative Institute, £48 12s. 6d.; Messrs. Coutts and Co., £26 5s.; Sister-tutors of the College of Nursing, per Mrs. Bedford Fenwick, £10 10s.; Miss Lawrence, Matron, and Nurses, Star and Garter Home, £1 5s.; Miss Finnemore, £1 1s.; Miss Leggatt, Lady Superintendent of the Cowdray Club, Proceeds of a Sale of Work, £50. There is also £250 for a scholarship promised from the matron and nurses' league of Guy's Hospital. The nurses are doing wonderfully well, and it is hoped that some who have not yet subscribed will see their way to doing so when convenient. Donations, however small, will be thankfully accepted. They should be sent to: Dame Sarah Swift, 14, Grosvenor Crescent, London, S.W.1.