Dear Mrs. Munkham,

Two days before leaving for Paris to thank you once more for all you keep doing.
I am afraid that we gave you a great deal of trouble, but everything went so well, &
Mrs. Munkham was delighted with everything.

I am now leaving with Ralston
a Sunday ahead to another with a meeting in Paris, &
you will be glad when it is all

Successfully over.

With very kind regards,
may thank you most
dear boys for me.

Yours very sincerely,

Marquand L. Carlin.
