

February 27th, 1929.

Dear Mrs Carter,

Thank you very much for your letter and for sending me a copy of the letter from Miss Lloyd Still to Sir Arthur Stanley. What you tell me makes matters quite clear and I shall be very glad to have a talk with Sir Arthur on the question of the future of the International Courses.

I hope very much that the League of Red Cross Societies will be able to help substantially with financing the scheme, if it goes forward since for some time to come Bedford College will be very much cramped financially and I do not think the Council will agree to any development which means an additional demand upon the ordinary revenue of the College.

Yours sincerely,

Principal.
