Dear Miss Monkhouse:

I have asked Sir Arthur Stanley a little more about Madame d'Armanazzy. I find he is only interested in her through an introduction from a good friend of the B.R.X. who says Madame belongs to the aristocracy of Hungary and is a very influential family there. However he says there is no obligation upon me to do anything in the matter, and that he himself has not seen the film nor heard her lecture, so could give no information about it.

In view of this I think we shall just drop the matter and I shall try to placate her enthusiasm.

By some other suggestions — miraculously
Persuading Sir Arthur for passing the job on to me !!!
Thanks for your letter anyway.

Sincerely
